

The Golden State—an abundance of natural beauty and breathtaking scenery—that describes a California vacation! Whether traveling to Southern California or Northern California, the diversity of culture, scenic beauty and things to do makes travel in California unlike any other place in the world. Visit cities like Los Angeles, Hollywood, San Francisco to enjoy all the excitement and beauty they have to offer. California also offers arts & culture, theme parks, spa experiences, shopping, as well as numerous outdoor activities such as beach and ocean activities, hiking, biking, and golfing. From busy cities to quiet sunsets, California is a place all visitors can create lasting memories.