Where shall Stonegate residents enroll between now and the opening of the New Elementary School?

In order to assure a smooth transition, Stonegate residents shall enroll at the existing Westwood Basics Plus School, located at 1 Liberty (near Yale and Westwood). The Westwood Basics School will relocate to a new elementary school in Stonegate in Fall 2009.

Will there be bussing to the current Westwood Basics Plus Elementary location?

Transportation may be provided where there is sufficient ridership to operate a bus on a cost-neutral basis. A transportation fee will be determined. See Frequently Asked Questions.

When is the new middle school expected to open?

A new middle school serving grades 7-8 is expected to open in fall 2012 pending school Board direction. The school will be located near the corner of Jeffrey and Tabuco. In the meantime, Sierra Vista Middle School will serve the Stonegate community.

Will open enrollment opportunities be available for middle and high school students?

It is expected that limited open enrollment opportunities may be available and you can check up-to-date information on closed schools. Click here for current information:
