

Colonial Draft Notice

Greetings from the colony of Meadow Park

Your assistance, support, and/or expertise is requested for Colonial Day on Friday, March 5, 2010

Please check the areas in which you would be willing to serve, and return this notice with your young patriot by Friday, January 29, 2010.

No experience is necessary in any of the areas since "Basic training" will be provided!

I would be willing to serve the colony by donating my time in any of the following areas...

- Toy making
- Quilting
- Calligraphy
- Stenciling
- Colonial Games
- Punched Tin
- Cross-stitch
- Colonial Tea
- Paper Marbling
- Shell Bubble Blowing
- Refreshments for Volunteers
- Historian(Share information about display items)
- Publicity *

See specific job listings on back At Home Jobs* - _____

*Indicates the job can be done at home: It is not necessary to be at Colonial Day.

I hereby pledge to serve the colony in the above marked ways,

Parent Name _____ Home phone # _____

Student Name _____ Teacher _____

Please print the above information clearly.

Thank you for volunteering to help out with Colonial Day at home. The following jobs are needed. Please choose something you would be willing to do before Colonial Day and we will have the appropriate station leader call you to coordinate.

_____ thread needles (quilting and cross stitch stations)

_____ cut material squares (quilting and cross stitch stations)

_____ bake cookies or scones for Colonial Tea _____ make finger sandwiches for Colonial Tea

_____ bake muffins or cookies for volunteers _____ donate fresh fruit for volunteers _____ donate bottles of water for volunteers