

THE STATE HAS JUST ANNOUNCED THE LATEST BUDGET CUTS.

WE'RE GOING TO NEED A BIGGER BAND-AID.

OVERCROWDED CLASSROOMS WILL SOON BE A REALITY. WE NEED YOUR HELP. NOW.

The State is cutting $22 million from our school budget.

That means teachers will have to be let go.
Class sizes will get bigger. And your child's education will suffer.

And here's the real tragedy: To date, only 6% of our entire parent population has stepped up and donated.

We need your help. Now. Our only chance is for every parent, you included, to give whatever they can.

BIGGER IS WORSE.

BIG BUDGET CUTS ARE COMING. THAT MEANS BIG CLASSROOM SIZES.
WE NEED YOUR HELP.

It's terrible English, we know.

But it's there to make a point: Your child's education is about to suffer, and suffer in a big way.

Soon, the state is going to cut $22 million from the IUSD budget. Many teachers will have to be let go. Classroom sizes will get bigger. And the quality of your child's education will take a very big hit.

If you think this is just too big for the average parent to do anything about, think again: Only 6% of parents in our district give to IPSF. Too many people think it's someone else's problem. It isn't. It's everyone's problem. And if everyone gives, we can do something about it.

To learn more, go to www.ipsf.net. And please, give whatever you can. The bigger the donation, the better.

THE STATE THINKS IT'S OKAY IF YOUR CHILD'S CLASSROOM IS OVERCROWDED. DO YOU?

THE STATE IS ABOUT TO SLASH OUR SCHOOL BUDGET BY $22 MILLION.
WE NEED YOUR HELP. AND WE NEED IT NOW.

$22 million. Gone.

That means teachers are going to be let go. Lots and lots of teachers. Class sizes will get bigger. And your child's education will suffer.

If you think this is okay, then do nothing. But if you think your child deserves a great education, don't wait for someone else to come up with the funds your child needs. It's up to each of us to do whatever we can. Please, for your child's sake, give to IPSF today. How much is up to you. The important thing is to give. It's a burden we all have to bear. To learn more, and to donate, go to www.ipsf.net.
