

Constitution Day

Friday, Sept 17

- Constitution Day 2010 <http://www.constitutionday.cc/> Quotes, word finds, crossword puzzles and other resources for learning about the Constitution
- The Bill of Rights Institute <http://www.billofrightsinsitute.org/teach/freeresources/ConstitutionDay/> Free resources and classroom lessons
- Sunnylands Classroom <http://www.billofrightsinsitute.org/teach/freeresources/ConstitutionDay/> From The Annenberg Foundation, this site has a large collection of online documentaries and videos that cover many areas of the Constitution and its history.
- US Government Info <http://www.billofrightsinsitute.org/teach/freeresources/ConstitutionDay/> Primary source documents, resources, and websites
- Elementary Lessons for Constitution Day <http://www.billofrightsinsitute.org/teach/freeresources/ConstitutionDay/> Six plans for elementary students to observe Constitution Day
- Center for Civic Education <http://www.billofrightsinsitute.org/teach/freeresources/ConstitutionDay/> Variety of activities by grade level for K–12. Some lessons include audio downloads
- SCORE http://score.rims.k12.ca.us/score\_lessons/special\_events/constitution\_day Grade level activities and resources, lesson plans
- Discovery Education <http://www.discoveryeducation.com> Enter “Constitution” in the “Keyword” box—videos (with teacher guides and blackline masters), articles, digital copies of the Declaration of Independence and the Constitution
- Scholastic.com <http://www.billofrightsinsitute.org/teach/freeresources/ConstitutionDay/> Three complete lesson plans especially appropriate for grades 3-8
- Edsitement (Natl Endowment for the Humanities) <http://www.billofrightsinsitute.org/teach/freeresources/ConstitutionDay/> “What’s Fair in a Free Country?” Outstanding lessons that make the study of the US Constitution relevant to students by addressing real-world issues