

IF YOU HAVE A CHILD, YOU HAVE A REASON.

Since 1996, IPSF has provided millions of dollars in grants and support for programs the state no longer pays for.

Science specialists. Art. Music. PE.

Even school nurses and librarians.

Which, when you think about it, is pretty shocking. But that's how much state budget cuts have affected your child's school.

The fact is, IPSF doesn't just help "the kids." IPSF has a profound effect on your child. Every day. In many, many ways.

To do it, we need your support. Because that's what drives IPSF: Donations from parents just like you who believe their child deserves a great education.

Please. Give to IPSF. Thank you.
