

Higher-Level Thinking Questions

1. If you could change the title of the story, what would you title the book? Why?
2. If you were the author of this book, how could you change the ending of the story? Why would you end it that way?
3. What in this story reminds you of something in your life?
4. How do you think the character felt when _____? How would you feel in the same situation?
5. Would you recommend this book to a friend? Why?
6. What is another way the author could have chosen to solve the problem in the story?
7. Did the character(s) make good choices in the story? Why or why not?
8. If you were the author, what would you like to add to make this story more interesting? Another character, a different setting, a different villain, etc.
9. If you were a book critic, what suggestion(s) would you offer to this author to improve their story? More adjectives (describing words), more action and suspense, more humor, etc.